VERB

INTRANSITIVE VERB:

An intransitive verb denotes an action, which stops with the doer (subject) and does not pass on to any other noun or pronoun (object). Or a verb, which does not require an object to complete its sense, but makes good sense by itself, is called an Intransitive Verb.

Example:

1. The king laughed loudly.
2. The school starts at 7 a.m.
3. We stopped there a little.
4. The train stopped suddenly.
5. The show opens at six o'clock.
