

UMESH
RAUT

VATSALA
YASHWANT

Travel Institute &
Delhi Travel Guide

VERB

TRANSITIVE VERB:

A transitive verb denotes an action, which does not stop with the doer (subject) but passes on to some other noun or pronoun (object). Or A verb, which requires an Object after it to complete its sense, is called a Transitive Verb.

Example:

1. Lata sings a song.
2. The player kicked the ball.
3. The boys fly their kites.
4. The birds sing in the green trees.
5. The king set me free.